Dear Parents/Carers

Whenever a term finishes, it gives me a great sense of pride when I look back at what the children have experienced and achieved. From Medieval Banquets to Brazilian Carnivals, sporting success to Castle Explorations, the children of Sandgate approach school life with positivity, determination and enthusiasm.

The tributes which classes put together for Mr Barkley and another fantastic Lip-Dub show just what we can achieve as a community. Our shared vision that children come to our school to be happy and successful is underpinned by the values we all share.

We have achieved so much together but we are always looking for new opportunities and your feedback about how we do this is valuable to us, so your response to the accompanying questionnaire will be appreciated.

Once completed, please return to the school office by Friday 15th June 2018.

Enjoy your half-term and thank you for your continued involvement and support.

Yours sincerely
