Dear Parents/Carers

As you are aware Mr Barkley retires as Caretaker and Crossing Patrol Officer at the end of this term.

Whilst recruiting a Caretaker is the responsibility of the school, contracting and training a Crossing Patrol Officer is down to Kent County Council. Although we are hopeful that our new Caretaker will take over this role, there will be no Crossing Patrol Officer to escort the children across the road before and after school until further notice.

With this in mind, please make any necessary adjustments to your child's journey to and from school, particularly if they are currently walking unaccompanied.

We will be speaking to all the children about this, including a reminder about road safety.

I will, of course, keep you updated on this situation.

Yours sincerely

Mr Matthew Green
Headteacher
