Use an image from https://www.literacyshed.com/the-images-shed.html or http://www.pobble365.com/ and create a piece of short burst writing (story, diary entry, letter, descriptive passage). You can also complete some of the questions and sentence activities.	Aim to read for 25 minutes every day. Use this link to complete AR quizzes https://ukhosted56.reinlearn.co.uk/1894764/ You can explore the following link when you need to change your books and access thousands of online AR books. https://readon.mvon.co.uk/library/browse.html	Pick three words from the list to practise each day (magnetic letters, speed write, silly sentences, build a picture, pyramids, chalk on the patio, speed type, finger paints)	Complete 5 sessions on TT Rockstars every day and one arithmetic activity (see separate document)	Use this link to make your own fossil. https://www.bbc.co.uk/cbeebies/makes/presenters-making-a-fossil Research what a fossil is and how they are made. This clip might help you https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/topics/29bbkqt/articles/22ym2p3 Make up your own text map (like our 'Rocks' one we did at school) to help you learn and remember facts about fossils.	Join the nation and try to do the Joe Wickes workout at 9:00am every weekday. Type in PE with Jo Wickes and you'll find a YouTube link. https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=6v-a_dpwiro	Follow a recipe and cook/bake/make something edible or help to make breakfast, lunch, dinner or a drink for your family.
Write a poem inspired by what's happening in the world. Possible titles... The Day School Closed A World United My Classroom at Home Things I Miss I wish...	Write a book review for a book you have read (include title, author, star rating, summary and recommended reader age).	careful carefully possibly probably probably accident accidentally occasionally eventual eventually	Measure the perimeter of some household spaces/objects (garden/table top) Draw and label the lengths of each side (stick to straight edges for now!) What measuring equipment will you need/use?	When you're out for your daily walk, keep an eye out for any fossils. You might find some if you're near the coast.	Make yourself an obstacle course in the garden or home (if you do not have a garden)	How many Lego challenges can you complete? https://viewsfromastepool.com/lego-challenge-printable/
Write a diary entry for your day (or previous day) or for a character in the story you are reading.	Make up some questions about the book you have read for you or a family member to try to answer.		Choose a maths game to play (there's lots of other subjects too!) https://www.educationquizzes.com/ks2/	Find a few rocks/stones. Test to see whether they are permeable or impermeable. Permeable = lets liquid and gases pass through.	Choreograph (make up a dance) for your favourite pop song. Practise it lots and then perform it to your family.	Collect a pebble from the beach. Decorate it and return it to the beach for others to enjoy.
Re-write this sentence as many times as you can so that it is suited to a certain genre (traditional tale/suspense/question) or has more effective description. The man walked down the road. E.g. At dawn, the elegant princess skipped along the cobbled path towards the magnificent castle.	Draw the setting of the story you are reading. How does the author help you to visualise the scene?		Play 'Countdown' with your family Choose seven numbers and a target number. Can you make the target number using the seven numbers (or some of) and the four operations? E.g. 10 5 2 7 8 3 1 Target Number = 46 $8 \times 5 = 40$ $40 + 5 + 1 = 46$ or $8 \div 2 = 4$ $4 \times 10 = 40$ $7 - 1 = 6$ $40 + 6 = 46$	Continue and complete the Extreme Earth PowerPoint Challenge (see separate documents).	Complete one yoga/mindfulness/focus session on https://www.youtube.com/user/CosmicKidsYoga	Teach your family 'My Face is Made of Onions'! My Face Is Made Of Onions (from Songs of Imaginings by Jenny Gould) My face is made of onions, My nose is made of cheese, My lips are made of cucumber, Tomatoes for my knees, My elbows both are radishes, My hand's a Granny Smith, My eyes are two bright oranges, But I've removed the pith! My left leg's made of chocolate spread, My right is lemon curd, My ears are made of jam, And if you think that sounds absurd, Look down and you will see I have fried eggs instead of feet. It's true what grownups say..... YOU ARE WHAT YOU EAT! (MUNCH!)
Homophone Challenge How many homophones can you list? Homophone = words that sounds the same but are spelt differently/have different meanings E.g. bear/bare	Look up your favourite author (internet or some books have author information at the beginning of end of a book) and write five facts about him/her.		At the toy shop The toy shop stocks tricycles and go-carts. The tricycles have 3 wheels. The go-carts have 5 wheels.  Sun counted the wheels. He counted 37 altogether. How many tricycles are there? How many go-carts?	Make a four (or more) slide PowerPoint presentation about Volcanoes or Rocks. If you do not have a computer, make a post-it note plan like we did at school for our 'Chocolate' presentations.	Go for a walk/jog/bike ride/scooter ride.	Draw/paint a picture to put in your window for others to see.
