Friday 18th March 2022

Lots of laughs, and almost as many groans, echoed around the classrooms and corridors of Sandgate Primary as we held our joke competition to find the School's ultimate Joker 2022.

The winner from each class received a certificate and whoopee cushion along with a place in the final. After much deliberation, I am pleased to announce Nathaniel in Penguins as our Ultimate Joker with:

Why was the sand wet? Because the sea weed!

With your generous donations we raised: £369.57

Well done to everyone that entered, I hope you enjoy reading all the class winners below:

Butterflies:

Thea - What did the snowman eat for breakfast? Ice Crispies!

Bumblebees

Freddie - What do you call a camel with three humps? Pregnant

Owls

Archer - Where do cows go on a Saturday night? To the moo-vies!

Rabbits

James – How do you cut the sea in half? With a sea-saw!

Penguins

Nathaniel - Why was the sand wet? Because the sea weed!

Panthers

Otto – What do you get if you cross an elephant with a fish? Swimming trunks!

Bears

Eli - Three children are going down a slide and a genie agrees to grant them anything they wish for.....the first child goes down the slide and says 'Gold' and lands in a pile of gold, the second child shouts 'Diamonds' and lands in a pile of diamonds, the third child shouts 'Wee' and land in a puddle of Wee!

Lions

Tehilah – What is a caveman's fart? A blast from the past!

Seahorses

Folkestone School Games

Our 2 Hockey teams finished first in their heats this week. Neither team conceded any goals against other schools. They will now go on to play in the final in a few weeks.

Owls class used their knowledge of instructional writing to make and of course eat our portrait pizzas. We even made our own dough and used the toppings to create comical faces. What do you think?

Science Week 2022 'Growth' Poster Competition!

If you win nationally, the prizes range from

- £20 RAF online shop items
- Adoption packs
- Amazon Echo
- Biography picture books
- Cardboard VR goggles
- Eco-friendly build-your-own toy kits
- Engineering Curiosity card sets
- Fun fact books
- Robotic toys
- University hoodies
- Class packs for winners' schools

Create a poster linked to theme of 'Growth' and submit it to Mrs Evans. The poster can be about anything in the world of Science that you want as long as it fits the theme of 'growth'. She will pick 5 entries to be sent away to be judged by the leaders of British Science Week.

- The poster must be on one piece of A4 or A3 paper or card.
- You can create the poster by yourself or in a team.
- Make sure your name, age & class is on the back of the poster. If you are working in a team, all names and ages are needed.

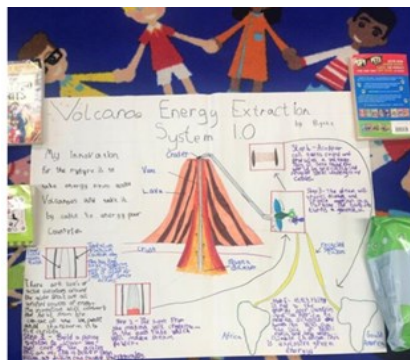

Good luck! 😊

The deadline for entering the competition is 24th March
