Platinum Pudding Cake Competition

We recently launched Sandgate's Platinum Pudding Cake Competition and were overwhelmed by the number of entries! Every child who entered has received a special Platinum Jubilee Certificate today in Gold Book assembly. It was incredibly hard selecting a winning design. After much careful consideration, the following children were announced as the winners for their year group and will get to make, bake and decorate their cake/pudding designs in school next Wednesday.

Foundation: Henry R – Her Majesty's Corgis Cake

Year 1: Isla H – A Majestic Eton Mess

Year 2: Sofia W – Royal Blue Hat Cake |

Year 3: Ted F – Queen Elizabeth's Victoria Sponge Stamp Cake

Year 4: Joe WB – Union Jack Cupcakes

Year 5: Dylan C – 70 Carrot Gold and Platinum Pudding Cake

Year 6: Isabelle B – Her Majesty's Strawberries and Cream Chocolate Cake

Rotary Club of Folkestone

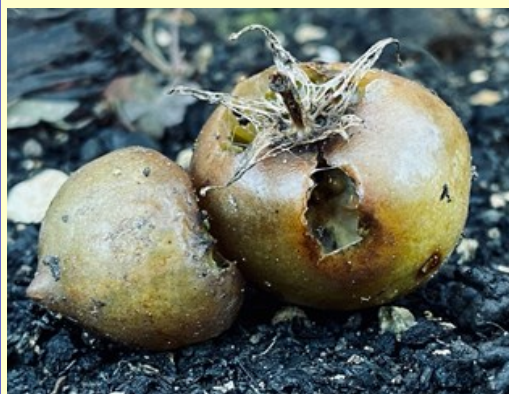

We had the absolute pleasure of welcoming David Jarvis and David Rolls, from the Rotary Club, to Thursday's assembly where they congratulated our Sandgate children on entering the Rotary Photographic Competition and the Rotary Writing Competition.

We are thrilled to announce that Annie in Year 4 won both locally and at District level, which includes the whole of Kent, East Sussex and South London. What an achievement! Congratulations Annie!

Amber-Rose (Yr5) and Rowan (Yr4) came runners up in the Rotary Writing Competition, with Phoebe in Year 6 winning at local level. Congratulations to all three pupils, and to those who entered and received commended or highly commended certificates. Sandgate is full of such talent!
