Our Year 6 Ambassadors!

Entries for this year's Rotary Young Writer Competition need to be submitted to the School Office or Mrs Richley by Tuesday 7th February 2023

To take part children are asked to produce a story around the theme of 'Peace'.

The entry may be fiction prose, non-fiction prose or a poem which relates to the theme.

- Up to a maximum 550 words for prose
- Up to a maximum 40 lines for poetry
- No pictures or drawings to be part of entry
- All entries to be legible either written or typed.

AGE GROUPS Junior 7 to 10; Intermediate 11 to 13; Senior 14 to 17 years Ages as at 31st August 2022

Think about your use of vocabulary and language. Have you used powerful verb and adverbs, interesting descriptive adjectives? Make sure you spell check your writing.

JUDGING CRITERIA The judges will consider the imagination relative to the subject, your writing engages the interest of the reader and is consistent in the storyline.

Entry Forms (which need to accompany the entry) are available from the School Office.
