

Sandgate Primary School

Everyone deserves the taste of success

Issue 30

Friday 12th May 2023

The stars of this week are undoubtedly our year six children who sat their Key Stage Two SATs this week. Despite an unsettled term for them with industrial action and two bank holidays, they showed grit and determination when faced with some challenging papers.

With the children's transfer to secondary school not far off, the memory of the tests will soon fade, but what will remain is the strength of character they have demonstrated not just this week but throughout their time at Sandgate – this is what will lead them to future success. Well done to every one of them.

I hope you all received the link to our after school provision survey which went live yesterday. If you haven't yet had the chance to fill it in, there are only two questions to answer; the more responses we have, the more accurately it will reflect the needs of the school.

Good luck to the Herald Cup football team who are competing in the quarter finals after school today – we are all rooting for you. It is a home match if anyone would like to come and support, I know the team would appreciate it.

Best Wishes

Matthew Green
