World Book Day 2024

In March 1924, British author Agatha Christie released Poirot Investigates, a book containing 11 detective stories that were all solved by the wonderful Hercule Poirot, detective extraordinaire!

To mark 100 years since its release as well as World Book Day 2024, Sandgate Primary will be hosting a Detective Story Day on Thursday 7th March. Children and adults are invited to add an appropriate detective-y item to their school uniform for the day: think Poirot's moustache, Miss Marple's hat, TinTin's hair, Enola Holmes's magnifying glass or the classic detective's notepad!

These items may well come in useful should anything mysterious happen over the course of the day!

To celebrate World Book Day at home, you might want to head into town to purchase one of this year's £1 books with your child's voucher, and there are also lots of other great ideas on the World Book Day website such as a family book map!
